— COMMUNITY —
COMMUNION WITH GOD

IN DIE TEENWOORDIGHEID VAN GOD

Lord, you have searched me and known me! You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from afar. You search out my path and my lying down. You are acquainted with all my ways. Even before a word is on my tongue, behold, O Lord, you know it altogether. You hem me in, behind and before, and lay your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high; I cannot attain it. Where shall I go from your Spirit? Or where shall I flee from your presence? If I ascend to heaven, you are there! If I make my bed in Sheol, you are there! If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there your right hand shall lead me, and your hand shall hold me. If I say, "Surely the darkness shall cover me, and the light about me be night," even the darkness is not dark to you; the night is bright as the day, for darkness is as light with you. For you formed my inward parts; you knitted me together in my mother's womb. I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well. My frame was not hidden from you, when I was being made in secret, intricately woven in the depths of the earth. Your eyes saw my unformed substance; in your book were written, every one of them, the days that were formed for me, when as yet there was none of them. How precious to me are your thoughts, O God! How vast is the sum of them! If I would count them, they are more than the sand. I awake, and I am still with you.

— Psalm 139:1-18 (Ruth Fazal) —

A SENSE OF COMMUNITY THROUGH COMMUNION

"I was searching for that elusive thing that all of us search for. Most of the time, we're not even conscious of it. But we're searching for ourselves in an authentic way. We want to recognize the person we see in the mirror and embrace that person with all the brokenness and lacklustre, all the things that only we are aware of in the depths of our being."

"You know how so often people say they go on this journey — and I said it too, that I'm looking for God. But God has already found us, really. We have to look in the spot where we're least likely to look. And that is within ourselves. And when we find that love, that presence, deep within our own personal being — and it's not something that you can earn or something that you can work towards, it's just a realization of being human, of being alive, of being conscious. And that love is overwhelming. And that is the basic foundation of joy. And then we see it in others, and we seek to ignite that love in others." — Ramón Estévez (a.k.a Martin Sheen)

PANTEÏSME (GOD IN ALLES) versus PANENTEÏSME (ALLES IN GOD)

- 1. A SOLIDARITY WITH ALL FORMS OF LIFE — "Love all God's creation, both the whole and every grain of sand. Love every leaf, every ray of light. Love the animals, love the plants, love each separate thing. If you love each thing you will perceive the mystery of God in all; and when once you perceive this, you will thereafter grow every day to a fuller understanding of it: until you come at last to love the whole world with a love that will then be all-embracing and universal."
— Dostoyevsky, 'The Brothers Karamazov'
- 2. A CONSCIOUSNESS OF INTERCONNECTEDNESS — "The sole meaning of life is to serve humanity by contributing to the establishment of the kingdom of God, which can only be done by the recognition and profession of the truth by every man." — Tolstoy, 'The Kingdom of God'
- 3. WHOLENESS OF AN IMPLICATED ORDER — "Ons het baie lede in een liggaam, en die lede het nie almal dieselfde funksie nie. Net so is ons, al is ons baie, in Christus een liggaam, en almal afsonderlik lede van mekaar." — Apostel Paulus, 'Romeine 12:4-5'

GIVING TRANSFORMS HAVING INTO BEING

~ ONE MAN'S DREAM — YANNI ~

I am the wind which rustles your hair.

I am the sun which warms your body.

I am the rain which dances on your face.

I am the smell of flowers in the air,
and I am the flowers which send their fragrance upward.

I am the air which carries the fragrance.

I am the beginning of your first thought.

I am the end of you last.

I am the idea which sparked your most brilliant moment.

I am the glory of your fulfilment.

I am the feeling which fuelled the most loving thing you ever did.

I am the part of you which yearns for that feeling again and again.

Whatever works for you, whatever makes it happen for you 🎵 whatever ritual, ceremony, demonstration, meditation, thought,

🎵 song, word or action it takes to "reconnect" with me —
do this ... do this, in remembrance of me!
