STILTE IN DIE KAPEL

~ VILLANELLA — RESIGHI ~

IN DIE TEENWOORDIGHEID VAN GOD

Vanoggend toe ons wakker geword het, het U lig op ons geskyn –
Mag ons gedagtes bevry word deur U lig,
mag ons siele U seëning sien,
mag ons harte U liefde onthou.
Mag U lig deur ons skyn vandag
en reflekteer na almal wat ons sal ontmoet
of aan wie ons sal dink –
Mag ons vandag vrede bring in die wêreld
deur U lig te weerkaats
sodat ons U doel met ons lewens kan begryp,
U doel met die wêreld kan bereik.
Openbaar U Lig aan ons – Ewige Lig – wys ons hoe!

Siel is Asem ♥ Siel is Lewe

"There are many signs that God is a dead letter (if not actually dead), and one sign that he has a future. The many signs circulate around the rise of science, as almost everyone realizes. When Freud called religion a rear-guard action to defend the indefensible, he wasn't sneering. He was representing the change in worldview that science brought with it. A rational approach to the universe deposed the Book of Genesis, while two world wars settled anyone's hash who thought of God as a benign father who loved his children. The bomb raised the spectre of Jehovah bent on destroying the world not by flood but by fire.

I set out many years ago to show that there's another way to view God, as the source of consciousness and the vital creative spring from which we get our mind, creativity, and above all, our ability to evolve. God is on the move. That's the one hopeful sign. Once you drop the storybook image of a patriarch sitting on his throne above the clouds, room is made for a different story. [A honest humble prayer: who are you, God and who am I?]

It's an ancient story, largely from the East, that connects this world with higher reality. For the sake of simplicity, Eastern images of God have a face and a gender. But to call God "he" or "she" doesn't get at the essence. The essence of God is pure consciousness, infinite possibilities, and endless unfoldment. Measured by those markers, humans are made in God's image, which is cause for enormous optimism.

The problem all along, whether you look at the Book of Job, the New Testament, or the lives of the saints, was that we reversed the scheme: we created God in our own image. This was inevitable. The human mind is limited; God is infinite. There is no possibility for a limited mind to grasp an infinite one except in small fragments, and these fragments, once ossified into religions, became the true God for millions of people, depending on their culture. God without any image sits at the heart of every faith, and once we get over our ingrained scepticism, disillusion, and broken hearts, God will continue to evolve, for the simple reason that humans never stop evolving. The leap that will resurrect God can only happen through personal experience. To know God by standing apart and analyzing the situation doesn't work. It works for sceptics because they are working toward a preconceived conclusion. If they met Christ on the sidewalk, they'd still debunk God.

Once you drop the storybook image of a patriarch sitting on his throne above the clouds, room is made for a different story."

HERINNERING EN SEËNBEDE

Hoe omsigtig, my God, maak U my touwys om
die oogklappe van my gedagtes te verwyder
en teuelvry U lief te hê
en sodoende die toertjies my beskore
uit te voer in die veiligheid
van die arena
want net U liefde is niks anders nie hoe teer roskam U my om houtgerus te rus
in die wenkampie van U Liefdes-Almag.

AS ONS UITSTAP

~ VINCENT — DON MCLEAN ~

"Perhaps it will seem to you that the sunshine is brighter and that everything has a new charm. At least, I believe this is always the result of a deep love, and it is a beautiful thing.

And I believe people who think love prevents one from thinking clearly are wrong;

for then one thinks very clearly and is more active than before.

And love is something eternal — the aspect may change, but not the essence.

There is the same difference in a person before and after he is in love as there is in an unlighted lamp and one that is burning. The lamp was there and it was a good lamp, but now it is shedding light too, and that is its real function.

And love makes one calmer about many things, and in that way,
one is more fit for one's work."

(VINCENT VAN GOGH)
